

I urge you to respect the New Jersey law. I can not tell you the anguish I experienced as a result of telemarketers' calls during my mother's illness. They did not respect the time of day or night. I was very happy when New Jersey put a stop to this invasion of privacy. New Jersey law must stand.